The Cable Company,

Office of General Manager.

Richmond, Va., December 30, 1905.

To Our Patrons, Friends and the Public: 4.

We desire to sincerely thank you, one and all, for the generous patronage accorded us during the year 1905. We have noted with satisfaction that the people of Richmond and of Virginia as a whole, ever willing and ready to promote any good business interests, have endorsed our efforts to please them by tendering to The Cable Company a liberal share of their good will. We are heartily appreciative of this, and take this means of thanking every one for their assistance in the past.

We earnestly hope that the new year, soon to dawn upon us, will be filled with prosperity and happiness for all, and that the friendly ties between the people of this city, this State and The Cable Company may grow apace.

With a cordial greeting to all for the new year, we are,

Sincerely yours,

The Cable Company,

By J. G. Corley, General Manager.

A Postponed Dinner.

A Californian relates the following as illustrating the apiness avin ed by a Chinere shrvant in his employ for an easy assimilation of American methods of dealing with the "hobo" typs that is not less common in California than in the East.

A hunsry tramp know' at the kitchen door of the Californian's house one Tuesday afternoon, when he was p mply challenged by Lee Yuen. The "hobo" delivered himself of a lone tate of woe to the Chhaman, concluding with a petition for something to eat.

"You like fish?" suavely insinuated the Chinese.

"Yes!" engerly assented the tramp.
"Call Fliday," responded Lee, with an impertubable smile, as he closed the door.—Harper's Wenkly.

NO MORE CHOKING DUST FROM SWEEPING

THE DUSTLESS BRUSH

The only practical dustices brush ever invented. Has a steel reservoir back to hold a supply of oil, which in the process of sweeping deadens the dust, forming it into little balls which are easily disposed of. Bristles will not scratch hardwood polished floors.
